BEST PRACTICE 1

MISSION DRIVEN ASSESSMENT

- “Where questions about educational mission and values are skipped over, assessment threatens to be an exercise in measuring what’s easy, rather than a process for improving what we really care about.”
- Banta, 1996

MISSION CONCEPTS

- Mission drives assessment
- Assessment integrated with program review
- Program achievements linked to resources
- Resources enhance mission

BEST PRACTICE 2

USE DRIVEN ASSESSMENT

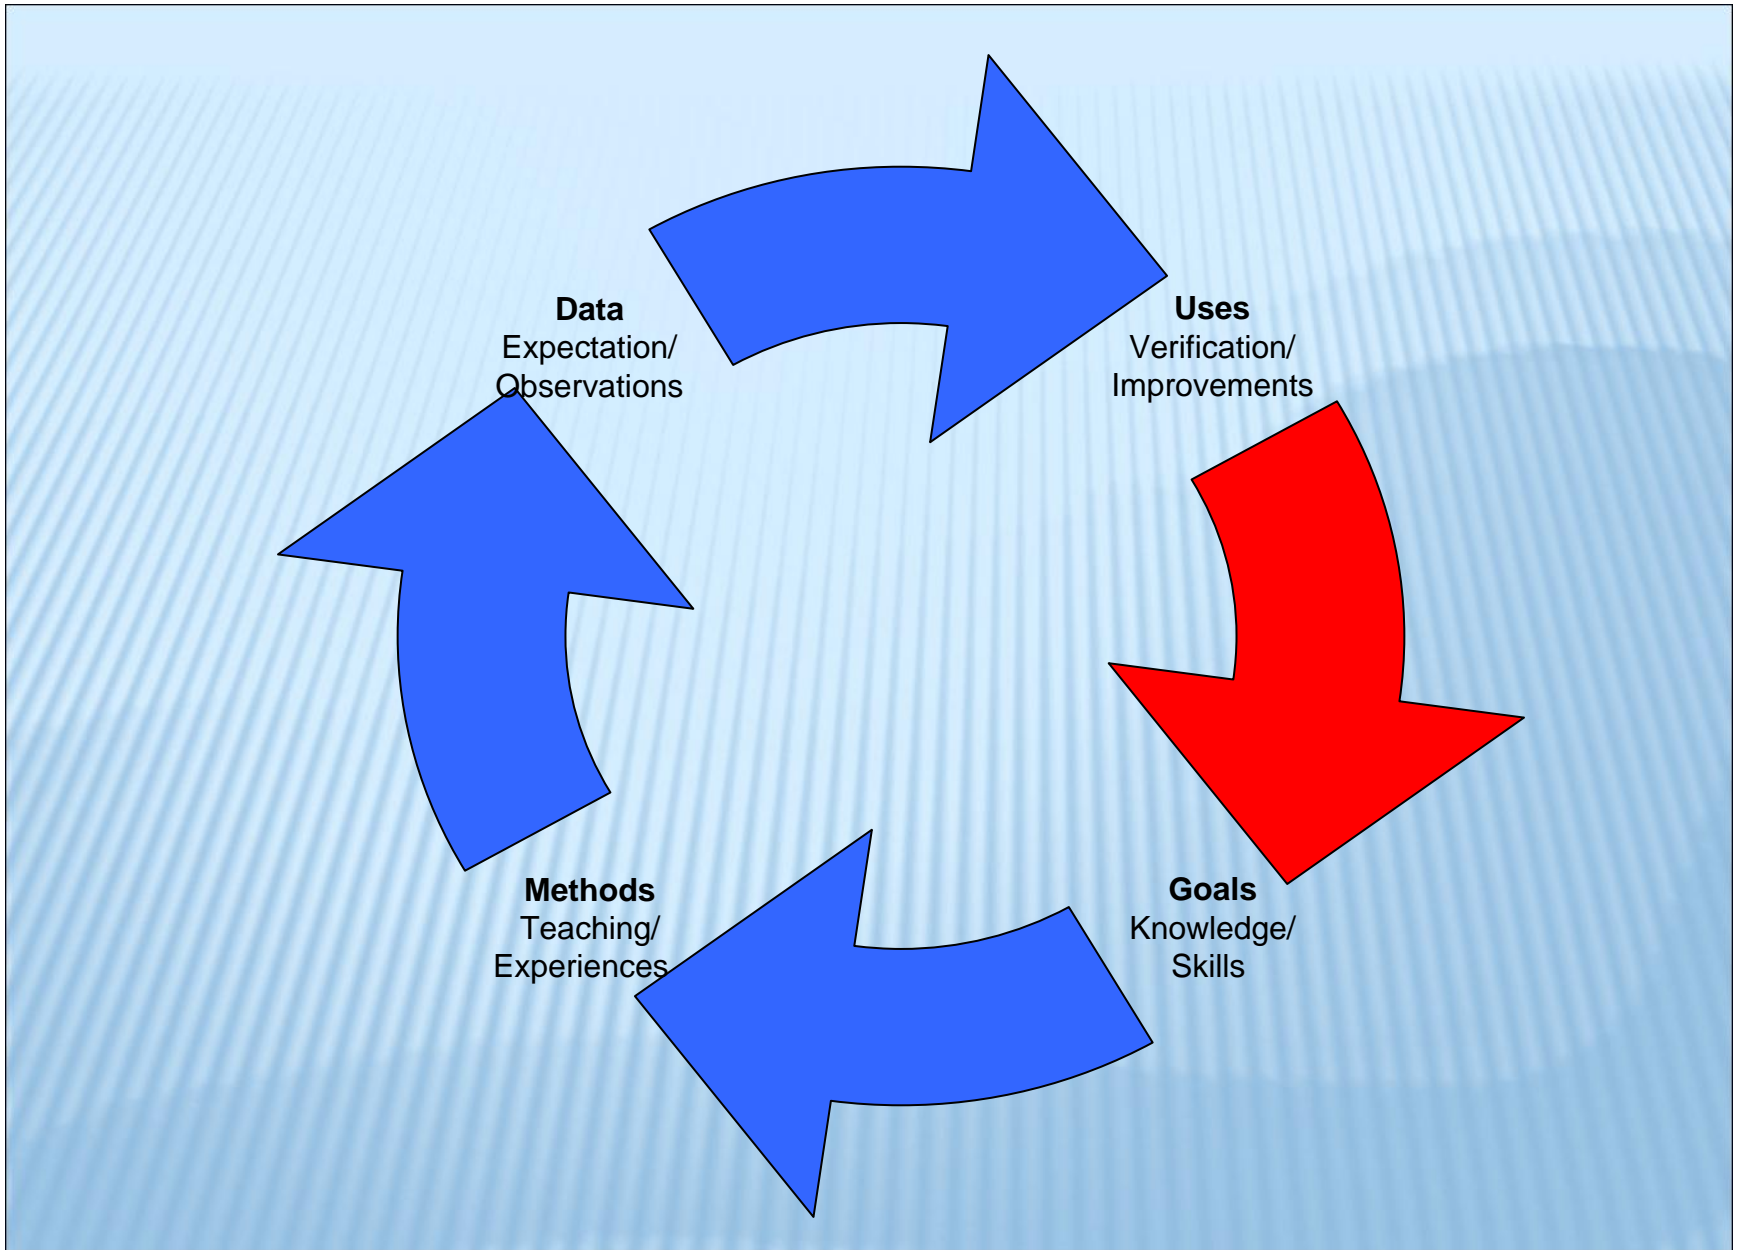

- “If an assessment doesn’t help improve teaching and learning activities, why bother with it?”
- In order to be useful assessment must correspond to your key learning goals and your curriculum.”
- Suskie, 2004

USE CONCEPTS

1. Uses = validate & track changes in critical knowledge
2. Goals = desired critical knowledge
3. Methods = means of acquiring critical knowledge
4. Data = evidence =, >, < expectations

CONTINUUM OF ASSESSMENT USE

Initial →

- Verifies achievements
- Verifies strengths
- Identifies weaknesses
- Identifies ways to improve

Advanced

- Verifies mission achieved
- Implements new goals, methods, data, uses
- Integrates assessment into program review

JUDGING EFFECTIVENESS USE

- Outcomes verify achievement of mission
- Outcomes validate teaching methods

JUDGING EFFECTIVENESS

DATA & MEASUREMENT

- Measurement is valid
- Measurement is reliable
- Multiple measures
- Systematic (consistent, at same point)
- Time to collect the data is affordable
- Money/resources to collect the data is affordable
- Time to cost ratio = most valuable data

ASSESSMENT ADVANCEMENT USE FOCUS

- Explain/define what a program wants to do before any other actions are taken
- Link assessment with action to verify/improve the program
- Retain the focus on taking action vs. completing a task

BEST PRACTICE 3

FACULTY DRIVEN ASSESSMENT

“Assessment of student learning for program improvement is really transformational. We went into this process convinced that we were doing good work in preparing ESL/Bilingual educators and after two full rounds of assessment work we are even more committed and enthusiastic about our work as educators.”

Chris Cartwright, Portland State University
